Educating young people in the spirit of patriotism is relevant for all of us and it is an issue that never loses importance. This pressing issue is continuous the process consists of a complex of interconnected political and legal, socio-economic, ideological, cultural and educational activities. Young people today military-patriotic educational work of the Republic of Uzbekistan

Constitution and laws, decisions of the chambers of the Supreme Assembly of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Decrees and decisions of the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan, ministers Decisions and orders of the court, universal statutes of the Armed Forces and is carried out in accordance with other legislation. In particular " " development of the Republic of Uzbekistan in 2017-2021 the state regarding the implementation of the strategy of action on the five priority areas in the "year of youth empowerment and strengthening the health of the population on the basis of the organization" Patriot "in the program" the need for youth in the labor market is high the professions in question are given the responsibility of assisting in teaching. Together with propaganda work in improving their military knowledge, skills and skills it is also said to be conducted.

We are all told that the military-patriotic education of general education being an ingredient, the willingness to selflessly protect the motherland in young people and to do so directed to the formation of strength. Strengthening ideological immunity in young people, making them different alien ideas and protect against threats, have their own independent opinion, strong-willed, selfless and patriotic people education should become one of the most basic goals. Uzbekistan As noted by the Supreme Commander-in-chief of the Republic, Shavkat Mirziyoev " " education and education cannot be separated from each other, these two processes are harmonious, continuous well-mannered, highly spiritual, at the same time knowledgeable, only when organized on the basis, ingenious, spiritually and physically healthy, cultivates patriotic youth with a broad worldview, contemplation and a modern professional". Patriot in society and as a result of the increase in selfless people, in spiritual and educational life, as well as in other radical positive changes occur on the facades.

Today it is as great as the establishment of a new Uzbekistan in our country attention to the ambitious of young people who are our mainstay on the path to achieving the goal and show care, full of their talents and potential in all areas of them providing the necessary conditions and opportunities for the manifestation of state policy priority is. The foundation of the third renaissance of New Uzbekistan strengthening and contributing as a patriotic person to its evolutionary development adding should become one of the cherished dream hopes of all our compatriots. Indeed " " new Uzbekistan is the cherished dream of all of us, hardworking, the dream of our peaceful people. Then our people's long-standing hopes and intentions, rise sari's aspirations are reflected in a unique way.

From the distant past to the present it has been formed on the basis of our national thinking, has its own in various ideas and practical actions the dreams of our el-yurt, which have become an expression of today's New Uzbekistan the concept was together. When we all JIPS and read and learn tirelessly, when we do our work perfectly and efficiently, we acquire modern knowledge and make ourselves our life and society will definitely change if we work without suffering, " - says

President Shavkat Mirziyoev

Promising plans and radical democratic reforms renewed patriotic education it is assumed to conduct on the basis of views and approaches. First and foremost, formation of patriotic feelings in the minds and minds of young people practice "new Uzbekistan", "towards the third Renaissance", " Army and people-one is a soul", "one Intellectual-a spiritual patron to a neighborhood" " every illuminator – five coach to the age of ten", "seven neighborhoods to one child-parents", "against ignorance Enlightenment, against the idea-fighting the idea", "we pride, shameness, spirituality high people", "new Uzbekistan-enlightened state", " great courage and military heritage of our captains", " Enlightenment and religious tolerance", "To be a medicine for the pain of the nation is your true task", " for the sake of human dignity" starting from the understanding of the content and essence of concepts, the National idea and its we should pay more attention to improving the ideological foundations. Indeed,

"Taking into account the upbringing of young people on a modern basis, scientific and technological requirements today for the work on reform, improvement it assumes the formation on a scientific and spiritual basis based on their needs continues. A new, systematic approach to upbringing, the main qualities in childrenfamily in formation, preschool education, general education, secondary special professions and full-fledged educational opportunities of higher educational institutions, neighborhoods to bring to the surface and to a new level of scientific and methodological continuity between them. Strengthening stability in society and thorough security of the state provision is vital to Uzbekistan. Thus, Uzbekistan

The Republic as an independent state and subject of international relations the policy of defense is followed by the peaceful coexistence of all countries, other non-interference in the internal affairs of states, their independence, as well as, respect for the indestructibility and immutability of borders composed of Interstate bases on the principles of making. From these principles, New Uzbekistan "Patriot" in support of the defense of Uzbekistan during the third Renaissance in educating young people in the spirit of national ideology and loyalty to the motherland with the support of the organization and to their hearts and minds that the protection of the Fatherland is an honorable and sacred duty in deep immersion, our confidence in the power and potential of our national army in strengthening, ideological immunity against various internal and external threats we hope that it will achieve significant work in the formation. Supreme Commander-in-chief of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoev as noted, "our military today has its own professional military of the armies of the world's leading countries in terms of level of training he proves in practice, not in words, that he will never stay behind his servants. International in military training competitions, inter-army and sports competitions

The representatives of Uzbekistan have their skill, spiritualism, victory showing will, that they are worthy successors of our great ancestor clearly showing. Without a doubt, all this is in the entire people of Uzbekistan, especially in our youth a feeling of pride in our national army, Homeland evokes a sense of respect for an honorable profession, like a defender".

Military-patriotic education is a component of general education is. The basis of military-patriotic education is patriotic education.

Accordingly, the military-patriotic education of every citizen and growing or all that the generation can master from the smallest youth periods was an integral part of education, knowledge, faith, worldview based on patriotic education. The concept of patriotic education has a broader meaning than the ratio to the concepts of military education and training denotes. As we said above, patriotic education and training of every person from the date of birth, it will last for the rest of his life.
